About The Sonoma Valley Wine Tour

Get to know your ASFNR colleagues and friends outside of the meeting room on Saturday, November 2, 2019, for a wine tour in the heart of the Sonoma Valley. Known as the birthplace of wine in California, the lush Sonoma Valley lies nestled between the Mayacamas Mountains and Sonoma Mountains. Sonoma Valley is known for its breathtaking views, landscapes, and microclimates, from flat meadows and valleys to rolling hills. Abundance is the norm here, offering visitors a delightful mix of beautiful vistas, wine tasting, farm-fresh cuisine, California history, art, shopping, and outdoor adventures.

This experience has been customized for our group, so the number of participants for the wine tour is limited to 30. We expect these 30 spots to book very quickly so please make your reservation today!

Visit the Selected Wineries to See What Awaits You During this Enjoyable Tour:

- Larson Family Winery • <http://www.larsonfamilywinery.com>
- Cline Cellars • <https://clinecellars.com>

The Wine Tour into Sonoma Valley Includes the Following:

- Pickup and drop off at the Hilton San Francisco Financial District
- An experienced and fun wine country tour guide and driver
- Stop for Picnic lunch at the Larson Family Winery
- Wine Tastings at both wineries
- Complimentary water
